were passengers yesterday for Trinidad and arrived there last evening. Today the marriage of Miss Stella Smith to John Becker took place in the Colorado town. The relatives, friends of the family and the invited guests numbered many, as the parents of the groom are prominent and favorably known in this Territory and the parents of the bride were for a long time residents of Los Lunas and this city. Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, Sr., who were in San Francisco during the earthquake, have just returned from the stricken city. They were not injured and are none the worse for their experience, except from the hardships endured for a few days. The newly married pair will be at home at Belen, which town will be their permanent residence.

MEETING OF MEDICS.

Prominent Physicians of New Mexico
Begin Two Days' Convention at Albuquerque.

The twenty-fifth annual meeting of the New Mexico Medical Association opened its session at the Commercial Club Building today at Albuquerque and a large percentage of the most prominent physicians of the Territory were in attendance. The meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock by President P. G. Cornish, who made a brief address of welcome, after which the session was opened with prayer by Rev. J. W. T. McNeill. An address of welcome was also delivered by Mayor Frank McKee on behalf of the city. A number of scientific papers of interest to the physicians and surgeons occupied almost the entire afternoon. The papers were read by their authors and then discussed by those present.

Tonight the doctors are the guests at a banquet at the Bernalillo County Medical Society at the Alvarado Hotel. The meeting will continue tomorrow, when a number of additional scientific subjects will be discussed.

JUSTIFIES LYNCHING.

Texas Jury Commends Action of Mob in Hanging of Negro Boy.

Dallas, Tex., May 2.—The coroner's jury by its findings have fully justified the action of the mob who lynched Willie Duncan, a negro boy, at Oakwods, Texas. The verdict declares: "After a thorough investigation, the court finds that Willie Duncan did commit a crime that placed him beyond the protection of the law, and is of the opinion that he got swift and speedy justice by 'Judge Lynch,' of whom we did not have the honor of meeting when he came to the little town of Oakwods." The inquest was held by Justice of the Peace Johnson as coroner.
